

Ashwini Khemlani
VP Marketing

An Expert in Digital Marketing, motivated professional with solid project management experience and an efficient team player with strong communication and interpersonal skills. A travel enthusiast, while living in USA, India and Thailand, gained superior knowledge from each of these markets. In 2014 she obtained Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science from Visvesvaraya Technological University, India. In 2016, obtained Master of Science degree in Computer Information Systems (CIS/MIS) from Eastern Michigan University, USA and was recognized as an academically distinguished student majoring in a business discipline. She gained her SEO and Social Media experience while working with Quicken Loans and Adarsha Group Marketing Team (Involved in textiles, hospitality industry and broadcasting).

4 years of work experience